

Tri-Valley Community Emergency Response Guide

Dear community members:

The enclosed Tri-Valley Community Emergency Response Guide is provided to help you, your family and neighbors prepare for and respond to a community-wide emergency that may require you to take shelter and listen for emergency instructions.

Please take a moment to look through the enclosed brochure. Post the quick-reference magnet where you and others can easily find it. For more information contact your local office of emergency services.

This information is provided to you as a community service by:
