Safety Engineers - and Bike Safety

Did you know....

That Safety Engineers are responsible for:

Designing safe bicycle and pedestrian routes
Determining the width of bicycle lanes
Designing safe bicycle paths and lanes
Determining height of curbs to be compatible with pedal height
Providing safe inclines at intersections