Two Voices of STEAM

STEM

We stem with science,
And rise from our roots.
Question with defiance;
Analyze our pursuits.
For answers, explore

ART

Earth

Seems still to the eye,
Though further review
Allows one to deny.
Each creature has its debut;
Talents which inspire those

Watching

Detail, Observation:
Another step in
Modern innovation.
Design Process will win;
Precision champions

Progress

Forms drastic landscapes;
The world’s changing scene.
In many hues and shapes,
Environs are serene,
So one may imagine

All

In the universe-
Systems, surroundings-
Every biome diverse;
Uniqueness: astounding.
Each sight unparalleled

Completely

Splendid without taper
Landscapes seem more vibrant
From one’s view to paper;
Triteness does not Earth grant.
Each feature has a tale

Never-ending

Is inspiration
Between STEM and Art.
STEAM- a new sensation:
Zealous mind, astute heart.
